Financial Planning for Women

Like fine wine we all want to age well. Part of aging well includes creating a balanced lifestyle. Having a well thought out financial plan looking at your short term, and long term goals creates piece of mind, security and the ability to age well and enjoy your life through all stages. Join us for this special evening focused on Financial Planning for Women. This goal oriented session will help direct you onto a path to your financial well-being. As we work through the key areas of financial planning we will hear stories of women wine makers and sample their amazing wines!
